Emery County High School

This new auditorium was built to accommodate the growth in the area; it is also used for many community activities such as plays, sports, and classes; it helps our community's cultural needs.

The education of young adults contributes to everyone's future.