

Monticello LDS Churches

The chapel is a place for friendship, sociality, and spiritual development.

Any church affects the quality of all the town citizens, be it LDS or other.

The LDS church allows me and my family to worship according to our beliefs in God.