

King World Water Park

This is a great place to entertain kids.

Although tourists come here a lot, locals enjoy it too.

A water park in the desert is unethical and inappropriate; it is not within safe walking distance for local children, has tacky signage, and a Disneyland feel.

