

Monticello High School

We lack big high school technology and modernness, but we don't have gangs, guns, or drug problems; the kids get a good education.

Very talented people have received diplomas here and have gone on to universities to be top scholars, superb athletes, musicians, and good honest people.