

San Juan Hospital

Quality of health care is very important to good quality of life.

It is good to have medical facilities close by for emergency care or having a child.

It is hard for the hospital to keep enough staff employed.